

The Art of Textures

Saturday, March 28th, 2015
6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Open to Adults ages 18+

With artist David F. Heatwole

Students will learn how to make rubbings from various man-made and natural textured objects. * Students will also make their own "texture plate" that can be used repeatedly for similar works of art.

Participants will make two works of art of similar nature from 1 or more texture plates.

Space is limited so register your student ASAP = Today!

This program is free of charge thanks to these generous sponsors:

All supplies and materials are provided. Just wear old clothes and plan to make ART!

David Heatwole is an 11th generation artisan living and working from his home in Martinsburg, WV. More of his work can be seen at www.davidheatwoleart.com

"1 face 2 flowers" mixed media rubbing by David Heatwole aka. David Johnson

Contemporary School of Art and Gallery
10 east Main Street, Waynesboro, PA
Ph: 717-387-5201 www.CSAGI.org
Email: ronlytle3@netzero.net