

The Art of Textures

Saturday, March 28th, 2015
1-2 p.m.

Open to youth ages 8—11

With artist David F. Heatwole

Students will learn how to make rubbings from various man-made and natural textured objects. Students will also make their own "rubbing plate" that can be used repeatedly for similar works of art.

Space is limited so register your child ASAP = today!

Contemporary School of Art and Gallery
10 east Main Street, Waynesboro, PA
Ph: 717-387-5201 www.CSAGI.org
Email: ronlytle3@netzero.net

This program is free of charge thanks to these generous sponsors:

All supplies and materials are provided. Just wear old clothes and plan to make ART!

"The visitor" mixed media rubbing by David Heatwole

David Heatwole is an 11th generation artisan living and working from his home in Martinsburg, WV. More of his work can be seen at www.davidheatwoleart.com